

UNCG Teacher Education Fellows

Of the Fellows, By the Fellows, For the Fellows

Mission Statement

The UNCG Teacher Education Fellows Program emphasizes servant leadership within a community and global context. Scholarship recipients will engage in teaching-related activities designed to develop and enhance their leadership abilities, commitment to the campus and broader community, and awareness of socio-cultural considerations from the individual to the global scale.

Strong College

Sustainability and Hands-On Research

Ashby College

digital communication and ethical engagement in civic and academic life

Honors College

Global awareness
and service learning

Grogan College

Preparation for the performing arts and professions such as health, education,
criminal justice, and business

RESIDENTIAL COLLEGES

FIRST YEAR RETREAT: TEAM QUEST

Mentor/Mentee Program

WEEKLY SEMINAR

LEADERSHIP CHALLENGE

CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL

Fellows Traditions

STUDY ABROAD

JUNIOR TRIP: RON CLARK ACADEMY

Eligibility

- Majoring in Elementary Education, Middle Grades Education, Special Education, or Dual (Elementary and Special) Education as well as majors in the College of Arts and Sciences with Secondary Education concentrations (i.e., Anthropology, Biology, Chemistry, Economics, English, Geography, History, Integrated Science, Mathematics, Physics, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology).
- Have at least a 3.80 cumulative high school GPA.
- Score a minimum of 1100 on the SAT (verbal and math) or 24 on the ACT composite.

*Scholarship funds for tuition are distributed incrementally, with $3,500.00 distributed in the first year, $4,500.00 distributed in the second year, and $6,000.00 distributed in each of the last two years, as long as eligibility requirements are maintained.

Come Join Us!!

Email Us: teacher.fellows@uncg.edu

Call Us: 336-256-1489

